You Come First ~ The Musher's Creed

Before I rest, you shall rest.

Before I drink, you shall drink

Before I eat, you shall eat.

Before I take my ease, you shall have yours.

Before I lay down to sleep, you shall sleep.

Before I glove my frozen hands, I will booty your furred paws.

Before my well being, I shall see to yours.

For this IS my promise to you, my beloved sled dog.

An ode to Rob Cooke and his beloved Shaytaan Siberians, and all those who strive each day to live DOGS FIRST.
